Dear Members of the Public Safety Committee,

Recently, the Sparta Police Department held its First Annual Awards Ceremony for Police Officers and their spouses. I thought it was important to share the award recipients and their corresponding awards with you.

Level II Awards:

OFFICER JAGER MITCHELL – for his knowledge and assistance establishing new technology in the department and assisting other Department Members with IT needs.

Meritorious Arrest Citation (Awarded to a police officer...outstanding and exceptional... ability and intensity in the arrest and clearance of felony category crime(s)...)

DETECTIVE ANDREW KUEN –for his investigation of a specific, lengthy and complicated case involving the sexual assault of minors.

Career Achievement Award (presented to employees at or near the completion of their career with the department, for continuous and long-term exemplary performance of outstanding service to the community and the department)

CHRISTINE HAAS – for her years of service as both a Police Officer and Evidence Custodian/Code Enforcement Officer for the City of Sparta.

Level I Award:

(These awards are recognized by the State of Wisconsin Law Enforcement as major awards)

Medal of Valor (Awarded to a police officer who, in the line of duty, intelligently and knowingly performs a courageous act of personal bravery at hazard to life under circumstances evincing a disregard for personal consequences)

OFFICER KYLE GURALSKI – for his actions on November 5, 2019 during a critical incident at the Cotter Pin while assisting the Monroe County Sheriff's Department. Officer Guralski demonstrated several exceptional skills during this incident – his training, experience, demeanor, command presence, firearms expertise, and relationships with members of the public all played critical roles in his ability to protect many lives during this incident.
